A celebration of our trainees’ accomplishments, research advancements, community outreach, and program sustainability efforts over the life of the grant!

AGENDA
- Solar nanofiltration demonstration – video
- Trainee Lightning Talks – focus on research & outreach
- Panel discussion – environmental justice
- Faculty & Evaluator Updates – focus on sustainability

This material is based upon work supported by the National Science Foundation under Grant #DGE1735173. Any opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this material are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the National Science Foundation.
Interdisciplinary Training to work with and within Indigenous communities to address Food-Energy-Water challenges with cultural humility

- GIDP PhD Minor: Indigenous Food, Energy, & Water Systems
- ENVS 696N Seminar
- Native Voices in STEM Seminar
- Cultural Immersion courtesy of Navajo Trainees and their families and Diné College
- Internship with industry, national laboratory, tribal community, non-profit, government
- Research with faculty mentors – transdisciplinary
- FEWS Instructional Modules – place based curriculum for Diné College students
- Community Outreach with Navajo Partners – Sixth World Solutions, DigDeep, Native Renewables, Diné College, STAR School
- Mentoring of Undergraduate and High School Students – Bridge to STEAM, Diné College TCUP, Greyhills Academy
- NSF Responsible Conduct in Research Training
- CITI Social & Behavioral Science Training for research with Native American Communities
- Community based participatory research training and IRB support

This material is based upon work supported by the National Science Foundation under Grant #DGE1735173. Any opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this material are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the National Science Foundation.
Trainees

38 Total Trainees
16 MS
22 PhD

50% Contributed to FEWS Modules
70% Engaged in community outreach
74% Completed Internships
100% Employed after degree completion
100% Trained in NSF Responsible Conduct for Research

This material is based upon work supported by the National Science Foundation under Grant #DGE1735173. Any opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this material are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the National Science Foundation.